DEVIATING FROM GROUP TRAVEL

As per our tour policy, any student deviating from the established tour itinerary, must have the approval of the Executive and Artistic Directors.

Please complete the online deviation request provided by ACFEA's Tour Central AND fill out this form to be considered.

Please keep in mind:

- All orchestra members are expected to attend all rehearsals and concerts during tour
- All deviations will incur an administrative fee of $100 by ACFEA if the request is made before February 25, 2020 or $200 thereafter, in addition to any fare or tax increases charged by the airline.
- The last date to request a deviation is April 18, 2020

PARTICIPANT’S NAME: ________________________________________________________

Date of anticipated departure/arrival to/from tour ______________________________________

Please give us a brief reason for your request:  ________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

By signing this form, you assume responsibility for all additional costs and logistics associated with the participant’s itinerary change, including ground transportation to and from airports, meals and lodging. You will not hold PYSO or ACFEA responsible for the personal safety of the participant once he/she leaves the tour itinerary.

PARTICIPANT’S SIGNATURE: ____________________________________________________

_______________________________________  _____________________________________

PARENT OR GUARDIAN’S NAME    PARENT OR GUARDIAN SIGNATURE

All parents must sign regardless the age of the participant.

You will be notified by the PYSO office when your requested has been reviewed. Please do not purchase airline tickets or incur additional travel expenses until your requests has been reviewed.